OBITUARY

A beloved daughter, sister, aunt, wife and friend - Jacinta Namataka's love for life transcends her untimely passing. Jacinta left this world suddenly on November 6, 2021 at the age of 30, surrounded by loved ones who will continue to honour her legacy by living as she did, fully and leading with love. Born to Jeremiah Nambale and Jennifer Kayegi on 27 February 1991, Jacinta brought an undeniable light into this world and touched the hearts of everyone she met.

An accomplished young woman with a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from Royal Holloway University, Jacinta was forever exploring different career avenues from finance to marketing and advertising, with her most recent creative endeavour into voice acting - something she was naturally adept at. Jacinta was a born high achiever and could do anything she set her mind to - enjoying many successful years excelling in her professional life. As well as her professional brilliance, her contributions to the lives of many are endless. Jacinta is famous for her generous heart and infectious joy; to know her is to truly love her. Much as she loved and gave to all those around her, her generous spirit extended to those less fortunate through her sponsoring of a child in Malawi and contributions to ending child poverty in Uganda - another testament to her never ending compassion and love.

OBITUARY

Loving, kind and courageous, Jacinta was the heart of every celebration with her bubbly personality, elegance and radiant smile that could light up your soul. Everyone's biggest supporter, she had an uncanny ability to find happiness in the simplest of places, but always sought out life's true wonders through travelling the world with her beloved Jeffrey, all whilst sprinkling a bit of Jass everywhere she went.

Jacinta is survived by her parents; Jeremiah and Jennifer, husband; Jeffrey, brother & two sisters; Joanitta, Joel and Jade, and niece & nephew; Sophia-Grace and Joshua.

Jacinta's legacy will be in the hearts and minds of everyone she interacted with as well as those she reached but never met. She will be sorely missed. Although her loss is felt deeply, her spirit will always remain with us.

A M A Z I N G   G R A C E

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now I am found
Was blind, but now I see

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed

Through many dangers, toils and snares
We have already come
'Twas grace has brought us safe thus far
And grace will lead us home

When we've been there ten thousand years
Bright, shining as the sun
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we've first begun

HOW GREAT THOU ART

O Lord my God, When I in awesome wonder,
Consider all the worlds Thy Hands have made;
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art!

When through the woods, and forest glades I wander,
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees.
When I look down, from lofty mountain grandeur
And see the brook, and feel the gentle breeze.

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art!

HOW GREAT THOU ART

And when I think, that God, His Son not sparing;
    Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in;
That on a Cross, my burdens gladly bearing,
    He bled and died to take away my sin.

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
    How great Thou art, How great Thou art.

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
    How great Thou art, How great Thou art!

When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation,
    And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart.
    Then I shall bow, in humble adoration,
And then proclaim: "My God, how great Thou art!"

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
    How great Thou art, How great Thou art.

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
    How great Thou art, How great Thou art!

A TREASURED FRIEND

BETWEEN TRUE FRIENDS, EVEN WATER DRUNK
TOGETHER IS SWEET ENOUGH.

AFRICAN PROVERB

A B I D E   W I T H   M E

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord with me abide.
When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim; its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou who changest not, abide with me.

Not a brief glance I beg, a passing word,
But as Thou dwell'st with Thy disciples, Lord,
Familiar, condescending, patient, free.
Come not to sojourn, but abide with me.

Come not in terror, as the King of kings,
But kind and good, with healing in Thy wings;
Tears for all woes, a heart for every plea.
Come, Friend of sinners, thus abide with me.

A B I D E   W I T H   M E

Thou on my head in early youth didst smile,
And though rebellious and perverse meanwhile,
Thou hast not left me, oft as I left Thee.
On to the close, O Lord, abide with me.

I need Thy presence every passing hour.
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

I fear no foe, with Thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if Thou abide with me.

Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies.
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me
